Mr. EDITOR :- Permit me for once to make your paper the vehicle of conveying a few words to the good people of Wilmington .-Within the last few days the Charleston papers have contained several articles on the subject of Rail Roads, and particularly on the to the town of Wilmington. The object of speaches, to disapprove the plans, both of the late, all these communications is to arouse the peothe writers alledge they have been plunged for some time back. It is urged that if the Road is built from Wilmington to Manchester, The command of the army, therefore is the only that then Charleston will be cut off from the military position which I could hold in itgreat Southern travel; - perfectly isolated as they say -- and that the citizens of the "Queen Manchester Road is constructed, a large amount of produce, which of right ought to go in all these articles additional arguments why we of Wilmington should not connect with Charleston, and why we should, on the other hand, connect with the South Carolina Rail Road at Manchester. What would we have to gain by a connection with the city of Charleston? Nothing that I can see. But these Charlestonians are making this parade now with a view of blinding the people of Wilmington, by inducing us to believe that if we will only give up the idea of building the Manchester Road, they, the Charlestonians, will come generously to our aid and ensure the connection by the lower route. Don't believe a word of it, people of Wilmington .that all our overtures were almost scornfully rejected by them. Let us not be driven from part of the people of Charleston. We have no earthly reason for carrying our road to that people of Charleston would give us any substantial aid in constructing a road to that city. NORTH CAROLINA.

For the Journal. the report of them given by the officers of the fully, your obedient servant, meeting was not sufficiently full. Well I can safely say that the report was much fuller than is usually given on such occasions by the Secretaries, & I can further assure " Spectator" that in my estimation his friend, Mr Bryan, was the gainer by its not being more amplified. Who "Spectator" is I really do not know, but I should judge from the style that man, had something to do with its production. I would not think it worth while to notice the thing at all, were it not that it might lead some of the good people of Wilmington, who did not see the report of the proceedings of the meeting, to believe that it was incorrect. Now I was there, as well as "Spectator," and I can safely assert that that report was favorable, rather than otherwise, to the part which Mr. tance, or non-acceptance, until I should receive an Bryan took in that meeting. I suppose the snawer from the President to a note which I adgreat charge against Mr. Hall is that he was dressed to him in the morning of that day. This, Mr. Bryan would seem to insinuate, is a crime. Well it may be so. It is the lot of great minds to make these great discoveries. I must ask your pardon, Mr. and respectfully yours, Editor, because I know it is not your wont to notice anything which appears in the paper in which "Spector" writes.

ALSO A "SPECTATOR."

Mr. Epiror :- I have noticed in your paper of late a systematic attept to injure my political prospects to this end you represent publick opinion all one way & that against items as we think will interest the reader.— millions are offered for the above mentioned for barrelled Meats there is a very imited demand. me if this be so why make so much ado about They are taken from the New Orleans papers: boundary line, the United States waiving all Beef may be quoted nominally 8 50 to $9; 11 to it. or do you know the contrary to be the facts, and think to salve your readers, in this silly way, and get; them to change sides, if this is your game I can inform you that you underrate the voters of the district. that such a weak attempt to impose on them will be spurned by all.

As the conductor of a publick journal, your readers would no doubt rather see you persue a more dispasionate couse, and if I am so objectionable that you must have opposition in our ranks it will look more like fair play to let your candidate take care of his own interests he will certainly be able to do it with one so weak as myselfe without a coalition of Editors & office holders to help him out. bye the bye these combinations among men professing democratic principals, look rather awkward, and when formed to direct or manufacture publick opinion generally, produces the (COPY.) WASHINGTON CITY, March 10, 1847. Sin: Please to receive, as a mark of my respect, a copy of the following letters, which explain the circumstances under which I decline to accept the appointment of major general in the army.

Respectfully sir, your ob't serv't. THOMAS H. BENTON. To the Hon, Mr. of the U. S. Senate.

WASHINGTON CITY, March C, 1817. SIR: Without waiting for the formality of being presented with the commission of major general in the army of the United States, I think it right to inform you at once that my acceptance, or refusal, of that high appointment will depend entirely upon public and national considerations, of which you yourself, will be the judge. Per sonally, I can have no wish for this office; but if you believe that I can be of service to the country, of Gens. Minon and Juvera.
